Lost Acres Vineyard
80 Lost Acres Road
North Granby, CT 06060

The Granby Land Trust invites artists to submit original work, including but not limited to painting, photography, printmaking, drawing, and sculpture, to its 12th annual juried art show, to be held October 26 – November 26, 2017, at the Lost Acres Vineyard Art Gallery in North Granby, CT.

Works should be inspired by New England's natural beauty. All genres of visual art are encouraged, including but not limited to landscapes, botanicals, still-lives, portraits, and abstract art. Works must not have been previously exhibited in the GLT Art Show.

Artists are asked to identify 1) the property or place that inspired their work; and 2) the town and state in which the property is located (must be located in New England -- CT, RI, MA, VT, NH, ME). Properties do not have to be preserved to be eligible. All works will be juried for entry and awards. Some awards carry stipulations (for example, to be considered for the Granby Land Trust Award, the work must be inspired by a Granby Land Trust property.) Please see the list of awards for further stipulations.

Jim Laurino's "Creamery Hill Horse Barn" won the 2016 Matthew K. Orluk Memorial Award.

2D artists are limited to (2) entries - 36 inches or smaller on any side. Limit does not include frames or mats. Painted-edge canvases are OK. Please have your work wired and ready for hanging. No saw tooth hangers or clip mountings will be accepted.

3D artists are limited to (2) entries. Free-standing art must stand on a base of no greater than 18" x 18" and be no taller than 6'.

Sculpture on pedestals must sit on a pedestal no bigger than 18" x 18".

Please provide your own pedestals. Jewelry or similar items must include a presentation case or display.

THE JUROR: Elana Chernick-Kritz

Elana is a Gallery Manager at R. Michelson Galleries in Northampton, Massachusetts. R. Michelson Galleries is the largest commercial art gallery in western Massachusetts. Art originally exhibited at R. Michelson Galleries now hangs in many of the most prestigious museums in America, including New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston and the Art Institute of Chicago. Our sculptors have created some of our nation's major memorials, from the FDR Memorial in Washington D.C. to the National Anne Frank Memorial in Boise, Idaho. Our collections include oil paintings, egg tempera, watercolors, prints, fine art books, bronze sculpture and more.

The Granby Land Trust: The Granby Land Trust works to preserve Granby's natural heritage through the conservation of its scenic vistas, open space corridors, wildlife habitat, ecologically sensitive areas, and agricultural land. Visit GranbyLandTrust.org for information regarding our organization, upcoming events, and how to become a Granby Land Trust member.

Granby Artists Association: The Granby Artists Association works to create a climate which promotes the visual arts and fine crafts, create professional high quality artistic events, and support art education in the community. Visit GranbyArtists.org.

A Special Thanks to... Longtime GLT members Michelle Niedermeyer and Kevin Riggott for generously hosting this show at their beautiful vineyard. A portion of the Lost Acres Vineyard property is protected by a conservation easement donated to the Granby Land Trust.

Responsibility: The Granby Land Trust, Granby Artists Association, and all companies and individuals displaying entries will exercise great care in the handling of all artists' work. However, they will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to any entries.

Kristen Cormier's "Reflection #6" won the Salmon Brook Watershed Association Award in 2016.

Rick Daskam's "Phillips Farm" won the 2016 Granby Artists Association Award.

Alexander Anisimov's "Mountain Top" won the 2016 Granby Land Trust Award.
